Penn State Hazleton supports economic development in the community by partnering with local industry on workforce development; employing local faculty, staff and students; and by providing resources to local businesses and entrepreneurs.

¹ Findings based on FY 2017 study, conducted using a model endorsed by the Association of Public Land-Grant Universities (APLU) and the American Association of Universities (AAU), to measure Penn State's annual contribution to Pennsylvania's economy.

PENN STATE HAZLETON LAUNCHBOX

The Penn State Hazleton LaunchBox, scheduled to open in fall 2019, offers free resources and support to the Penn State community and general public, and helps students and local entrepreneurs in the development of new products and the launching of startups. Services include business development services, community education, and access to micro-grants and business space.

Key Collaborators: Downtown Hazleton Alliance for Progress, CAN DO, CAN BE, Greater Hazleton Chamber of Commerce, Society of Hispanic Business Professionals, and other organizations engaged in The Hazleton Innovation Collaborative (THInC).

SUPPORTING PENNSYLVANIA STUDENTS

Penn State Hazleton predominantly enrolls students from Pennsylvania, who reside in the northeastern part of the state. More than 95 percent of Pennsylvania residents live within 30 miles of a Penn State campus, and 75 percent live within 15 miles, putting a world-class Penn State degree within driving distance for most Pennsylvanians. The campus also supports resident youths through summer camps, college and career preparation, and dual enrollment programs.
