THE GRAHAM CENTER
FOR ENTREPRENEURIAL LEADERSHIP STUDIES

Developing a skill set for success, The Graham Center offers a variety of opportunities for students to prepare to enter the workforce and is designed to enhance students' career preparation experiences through interdisciplinary coursework, mock interviews, workshops in résumé writing, etiquette dining, networking opportunities with local businesses, and, in some cases, internships. The Graham Speaker Series also provides students with opportunities to meet and hear from local and national leaders in a variety of career fields. SUPPORTING PENNSYLVANIA STUDENTS

Penn State York predominantly enrolls students from Pennsylvania, who reside in the southeastern part of the state. More than 95 percent of Pennsylvania residents live within 30 miles of a Penn State campus, and 75 percent live within 15 miles, putting a world-class Penn State degree within driving distance for most Pennsylvanians. The campus also supports local youth through cultural programming offered at the Pullo Family Performing Arts Center (The Pullo Center), college and career preparation, and dual enrollment programs.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Penn State York has a rich history of giving back to the community through volunteer work, contribution to charitable causes, and provision of resources to community members. Student engagement is promoted through service learning and community-based projects as part of the academic curricula, and community members have access to athletic and art events on campus as well as University resources such as the library. Additionally, the campus is a good steward of the environment and is committed to sustainability.
